The Book of Titus Series

The Message of Titus 3:9-11

The Proclamation and Preservation of the truth of the Gospel is the concern of Paul for the churches in Crete.

The Message of Titus 3:12-15

Good works must be maintained by supporting Christian workers, meeting the needs of those who are without resources to have an effective witness. To accomplish this, Paul prays God's grace to be with them.

The Two Concerns of Titus 3:9-11

- Doctrinal Purity – vs. 9
- Congregational Unity – vs. 10,11

Evangelistic Strategy

"Proclaiming Truth, not arguing error, is the biblical way to evangelize."

-John MacArthur

Strivings about the Law

"There is a kind of discussion group which argues simply for the sake of arguing. This arguing produces envy, strife, rivalries."

-John MacArthur

The Final Exhortations of Titus 3:12-15

- Replacing Titus –vs. 12
- Supporting Christian Workers – vs.13
- Maintain Good works – vs. 14
- Greeting fellow Christians – vs. 15

The Book of Titus

The book of Titus is about how the church can thrive and flourish in an evil society. The Church must possess and preserve: a Christ-Centered Gospel, spiritual leadership, a standard of holiness, courageous proclamation, and an external focus.
